Conference Announcement and Call for Papers
28th Symposium of the Society for Nonlinear Dynamics and Econometrics
March 26-27, 2020
University of Zagreb, Faculty of Economics and Business, Croatia

The 28th Annual Symposium of the Society for Nonlinear Dynamics and Econometrics (SNDE) will be held at the University of Zagreb, Faculty of Economics and Business, Croatia, March 26-27, 2020. The conference is organized in cooperation with MacroHub - the Centre for Structural and Non-Linear Macroeconomic Modelling. The aim of the meeting is to present and discuss recent developments in theoretical and empirical analysis of nonlinearity in economics and finance.

Confirmed keynote speakers are Hélène Rey (London Business School) and Bruce E. Hansen (University of Wisconsin-Madison).

You are invited to submit a paper. Completed manuscripts or extended abstracts can be submitted electronically via the Conference Maker software at the following link:

http://editorialexpress.com/conference/SNDE2020/

To submit a paper, you must select one of the following five topic areas: (1) Macro Theory, (2) Empirical Macro, (3) Forecasting, (4) Time Series, or (5) Finance.

Notification for authors: January 24, 2020
Complete details regarding registration fees and local accommodations will be available in the near future on the society’s website at https://sndeecon.org.

The Society will award two $500 USD prizes: (1) the Richard T. Baillie award in Time Series Modeling is handed out for the best paper in time series presented at the Symposium by a “young researcher”, as defined as either a current student or someone that is less than eight years out of graduate school, and, (2) the Dwyer Ramsey award is handed out for the best paper presented at the Symposium by a graduate student. Graduate students’ electronic submissions should be followed up by a letter on official university stationary from a professor certifying that the submitter is a graduate student in good standing. An electronic version of this letter should be emailed by the professor to SNDE Executive Board President Hilde C. Bjørnland at hilde.c.bjornland@bi.no by February 16, 2020.

Authors of papers accepted for the Symposium are encouraged to submit their paper to the Society’s journal: Studies in Nonlinear Dynamics and Econometrics http://www.degruyter.com/view/j/snde.
